Marc Chamberland

Abstract

Several product and sum identities are established with special cases involving Fibonacci and Lucas numbers. These identities are derived from polynomial identities inspired by the Binet formulas for Fibonacci and Lucas numbers.